

Parish of St. Thomas, Apostle & Martyr, Ipswich

First Sunday of Christmas: 27th December 2020

Collect:

God in Trinity, eternal unity of perfect love:
gather the nations to be one family, and draw us into your holy life through the birth of Emmanuel, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Psalm 148

1 Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise him in the heights!
2 Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his host!
3 Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all you shining stars!
4 Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens!
5 Let them praise the name of the Lord, for he commanded and they were created.
6 He established them forever and ever; he fixed their bounds, which cannot be passed.
7 Praise the Lord from the earth, you sea
monsters and all deeps, 8 fire and hail, snow and frost, stormy wind fulfilling his command!

9 Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars!
10 Wild animals and all cattle, creeping things and flying birds!
11 Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth!
12 Young men and women alike, old and young together!
13 Let them praise the name of the Lord, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above earth and heaven.
14 He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his faithful, for the people of Israel who are close to him. Praise the Lord!

A reading from the letter to the Galatians (4.4-7)

But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (2.15-21)

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them. After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

This is the gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, o Christ.

Reflections from Rev Jackie:

Letting Jesus into Christmas:

Christmas is waiting:

Christmas is waiting to happen.
Outside, a vacant hillside
Lies silent, strangely empty
Of any angel's choir.

A stable waits
for bookings at the inn to multiply.
Distant kings study charts
and keep gifts in storage,
While shepherds plan their memoirs
In expectancy of unexpected fame and keep a chapter free for miracles.

A small velvet patch in the black night sky stands ready to hold a new-born star, and oppressed peoples everywhere cling wildly to prophecy and song and whisper the word: Messiah.

They've switched on the lights
In the high street, counting off the buying days.
Like guardsmen on parade,
shops are stocked and standing by,
Revvng up the engines
Of the card machines,
and history watchers mark another year
In the slow count to 3000.

But here an old man lies in the stairwell where he fell three days ago and no one knows.
Here a young girl loiters in a streetlights unholy halo to sell the only thing she owns that men will pay for.
And here an infant sleeps on a sack on the hard earth floor Where even a mother's hand is empty,
And there are places where Christmas
Is still waiting
To happen.

Spoken Worship. Gerard Kelly 2007.

Behold I stand:

When the night is deep with the sense of Christmas and expectancy hangs heavy on every breath
behold, I stand at the door and knock.

When the floor is knee deep
In discarded wrapping paper
And the new books are open at page one
And the new toys are already broken
behold I stand at the door and knock.

When the family is squashed elbow to elbow
around the table, and the furious rush for food is over and the only word that can describe the feeling Is full,
behold, I stand at the door and knock.

When Christmas is over and the television is silent for the first time in two days and who sent which card to whom Is forgotten until next year,
behold, I stand at the door

And when the nation has finished celebrating Christmas without Christ,
A birthday without a birth
the coming of a kingdom without a king,
when I am forgotten
despised, rejected crucified
behold, I stand.

Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and his name shall be called the Prince of Peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

This week's hymn:

Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled."

Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With th' angelic host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."
*Hark! the herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King!*

Christ, by highest heaven adored:

Christ, the everlasting Lord;
Late in time behold him come,
Offspring of the favoured one.

Veiled in flesh, the Godhead see;
Hail, th'incarnate Deity:
Pleased, as man, with men to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel!

*Hark! the herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King!*

Hail! the heaven-born
Prince of peace!

Hail! the Son of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Risen with healing in his wings

Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die:
Born to raise the son of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

*Hark! the herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King!*
