

Parish of St. Thomas, Apostle & Martyr, Ipswich

Second Sunday of Lent - 28th February 2021

Collect:

Almighty God, by the prayer and discipline of Lent may we enter into the mystery of Christ's sufferings, and by following in his Way come to share in his glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 22.23-end

23 You who fear the Lord, praise him! All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him; stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!

24 For he did not despise or abhor the affliction of the afflicted; he did not hide his face from me, but heard when I cried to him.

25 From you comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will pay before those who fear him.

26 The poor shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the Lord. May your hearts live forever!

27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord; and all the families of the nations shall worship before him.

28 For dominion belongs to the Lord, and he rules over the nations.

29 To him, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust, and I shall live for him.

30 Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord,

31 and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that he has done it.

A reading from the book of Genesis (17.1-7,15-16)

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous." Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, "As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her." This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark (8.31-end)

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels." This is the gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, o Christ.

Reflection:

Good Morning.... How is your Lent going so far? Things beginning to flag a little? Statistics for New Year resolutions (remember them?) suggest that most people fail within the first month. Fortunately I am not aware of any statistics for the keeping of Lenten observances, but going from my own experience, I usually find that things begin to flag a little around about the third week.....and the sense of failure begins to raise it's ugly head again! But looking at today's readings, I think that perhaps help is at hand.

The story in the book Genesis, tells us that Abram/Abraham is on a long journey – 30 years or so - a journey which is not only geographical but spiritual as well, since as he journeys he is discovering and learning to trust the One God who he believes has called him out from his comfortable, but unsatisfying homeland to venture into uncharted territory. Like Noah in last week's Old Testament reading, this discovery leads to a covenant relationship with the God who is calling him. The Covenant or promise is all on God's side... there are no sanctions provided if Abram fails; in vs 1 he is told "walk before me and be blameless and I will make a covenant between me and you" and then " you shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations" and in token of this he gets a name change.

Of course Abraham does go on to make mistakes and to fail to understand God's purposes, but each time God is faithful to his promise, and remains loyal to Abraham through thick and thin. As the years roll on Abraham learns to trust him more and more, so much so that the faithfulness of Abraham is honoured in many countries, cultures and religions in the middle east to this day. The gospel reading for this week, on the other hand, rings a much harsher tone and begins to spell out another aspect of our relationship with God..... learning to trust him in and through whatever comes, even suffering.

We find Peter, a descendant of Abraham, a son of the covenant, who knows (he thinks) a thing or two about God. But he is also on a journey of discovery... one that lasts just three years rather than thirty and is therefore much more intense than that of Abraham.

In today's reading Peter's problem is that as a son of the covenant, with several centuries of religious culture and practice behind him, he just can't bring himself to accept a suffering Messiah, he is confused and bewildered..... he so wants to trust in Jesus, but it just goes against the grain of everything that he has previously believed! He is loyal to the God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Moses, who has shown his power through the mighty acts of Creation and his Glory on Mount Sinai, but he struggles to see how faith in and loyalty to this one God can lead to the cross, both for Jesus and to a lesser extent for those who follow him.

As the journey continues for Peter he begins to understand how this loyalty works, but as with Abraham, and the rest of us, he still continues to misunderstand God's purposes, and falls short at critical moments. Eventually he does discover that loyalty and faithfulness are God's great gift to humankind. That when he fails or falls, God is there to pick him up, dust him down, and set him on his way again. As a result, Peter too gets a name change.

God suffers with us, but remains loyal to his creation.....That too is part of the Majesty of God revealed to the patriarchs.

So, as we journey on with God, when we get things wrong, or misunderstand. When we seem to be just too busy or too tired, or too fed up to bother or if we seem to be flailing in our Lenten observances, let us take heart from the examples of Abraham and Peter.

God is faithful and as we learn to trust him more and more he is there to guide, sustain and enliven us, just as he was with Abraham and with Peter.

- Canon Chris

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us access to his grace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

This week's hymn:

PILGRIM SAINTS

Great the God who gave us treasures more than jewels for our own.
Saints who taught the truths of Jesus
that the love of Christ be known.
Great the richness of their teaching,
pilgrims who were not alone.

Thanks to God, his love enduring;
still he gives again anew
Jesus Christ to be within us
and his promises are true!
Come, Lord Jesus, gentle leader, make us pilgrims following you.

Father God, when paths are steeper,
mountains towering overhead;
when the way is dark and slippery
- none can see the way ahead.
Keep us faithful, firmly trusting - pilgrims on true manna fed.

A prayer for the journey of Lent

Your Word reveals to us a simple truth,
that sin entered this world
through human folly
in believing we could be like you,
and permeated history
through envy, selfishness and greed.
Yet sin, which holds us tight within its grasp cannot resist a heart that is touched
by your grace through Jesus Christ,
cannot contend with Living Water pouring into hearts and souls.
Your Word reveals to us a simple truth,
that sin is defeated and we can become the people we were always meant to be,
by your grace through Jesus Christ.
Amen.
